ITEM 8 LIFEGUARD DISCUSSION. Councilman Casto explained they held a Beach Safety Workshop earlier in the month and ideas were shared on how to put lifeguards on the beach. He commented the TDC does not qualify for an additional one-cent tourist development tax, but there are other options. He commented this is a serious problem in our community.

Councilman Casto suggested public-private partnership since the city is covered under sovereign immunity some of the neighbors of business communities suggested that they would be interested in hiring lifeguards from the City. He commented if the City ran the program, trained lifeguards and provided lifeguards under an agreement with property owners that could be a good option. He stated the program could be built over time. Councilman Solis agreed and requested Chief Couch find out what the cost would be per lifeguard because people have approached him that are willing to move forward quickly, they would take the bulk of the expense while the City manages the program. He commented the first step is finding out the cost and how serious people are as to whether they are willing to take that burden on. He stated we can’t move forward without knowing the cost. Mr. Gisbert stated Chief Couch spent the weekend over in Jacksonville and gathered good information.

Chief Couch explained he spent five days in St. John’s County reviewing their lifeguard program. He explained St. John’s program has substantial help through a Red Cross administered awareness program. Under that program, non-lifeguards patrol the beach on four-wheelers and keep people out of the water. He commented people have volunteered wave runners or four-wheelers and he is looking into a similar volunteer program. He explained St. John’s had a side-by-side UTV that has a swivel seat if you find your density areas and the lifeguard places the UTV there. He commented it would be a good solution because an umbrella could be placed where gear and radio are readily available. He explained most of the volunteers were community helpers and some were retired that want to do something for the community. Councilman Solis stated they warn people but are not there to enforce anything.

Councilman Casto recommended raising the fee for the pedestrian walk on the pier by a dollar or two in order to hire two lifeguards. He commented progress needs to be made. Councilman Solis suggested getting comparable prices from other cities for their pier charges before the Council decides to raise rates. He explained the City is missing out on a great amount of revenue on the paid parking lots, this area needs to be monitored. He suggested engaging with TDC for educational program assistance. Mayor Thomas instructed Chief Couch to bring back a price per lifeguard and what the City could lease a lifeguard for. He instructed Mr. Ponek to bring back pier prices along the coast. Mr. Gisbert stated staff will bring back a comprehensive study on the regional piers and what their fees are. He explained a regional study on parking will be completed. He explained Mr. Campbell has been working on a system whereby patrons can pay for parking by mobile app as opposed to the stations that are there.

Mayor Thomas noted a recent drowning in the Gulf occurred at 1:30 a.m. and regretted that no lifeguard program will save every life that enters the water. He commended the significant changes and progress being made. Discussion ensued.

ITEM 9 GLADES UPDATE. Councilman Casto commented he continues to receive calls and emails for the residence of the Glades. He suggested the two bodies get together and communicate to come to some terms because it's a complicated issue. He asked for an update from the City Manager. Mr. Gisbert explained the Building and Planning Department has retained outside counsel because the City Attorney's firm has a conflict. He commented he will follow the Council’s recommendation. Discussion ensued over whether the City could act as a mediator of the dispute between the homeowners and developer. Mr. Leonard explained they have not received an application from a developer for that area. Councilman Casto expressed a desire that the City Manager attempt to mediate the dispute. Councilman McConnell and Mayor Thomas stated that they did not believe it was the City's place to get involved.
