OPERATIONAL ASSISTANCE AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the Sheriff of Bay County and his deputies have jurisdiction and law enforcement responsibility throughout Bay County, Florida;

WHEREAS, the City of Panama City Beach (the "City") is located in Bay County, Florida, and its law enforcement jurisdiction only extends to its jurisdictional boundaries;

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the Agreement that because of the existing and continuing possibility of intensive situations and other law enforcement emergencies and in order to ensure the preparation of law enforcement will be adequate to deal with such activity, protect the public peace and safety, and preserve the lives and property of the people; and

WHEREAS, the Sheriff of Bay County, Florida, and City have the authority under Chapter 23, Part 1, Florida Statutes, the Mutual Aid Act, to enter into a requested operational assistance agreement for the requesting and rendering of assistance in law enforcement intensive situation and emergencies.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it known that the aforesaid law enforcement agencies hereby approve and enter into this Agreement whereby the Sheriff of Bay County may request and receive law enforcement assistance from the other in responding to civil disturbances, large protest demonstrations, aircraft disasters, fires, natural or man-made disasters, spotting events, concerts, parades or any other situation requiring law enforcement action, and with notice to, and consent of, the senior law enforcement officer on duty for the Bay County Sheriff's Office - unless precluded by exigent circumstances, the City may investigate and report on traffic accidents and minor incidents that occur in the unincorporated areas of Bay County that are contiguous to the City's jurisdictional boundary.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

SECTION I: In the event that the Sheriff of Bay County is in need of assistance as set forth above, they shall notify the authority from whom such assistance is required. The agency head, or his designee, whose assistance is sought shall evaluate the situation and his available resources, and will respond in a manner he deems appropriate.

SECTION II: The authority agrees to furnish necessary equipment, resources and facilities and to render services to the Sheriff of Bay County as set forth above; provided, however, that the authority shall not be required to deplete unreasonably its own equipment, resources, facilities and services in furnishing such assistance. Furthermore, the Bay County Sheriff's Office agrees to provide a means for a municipal law enforcement officer to communicate with the Bay County Sheriff's Office and to provide assistance, when requested, of any law enforcement nature to the City of Lynn Haven.

City of Panama City Beach

Exhibit A
SECTION III: The authority which furnishes any equipment pursuant to other Agreement shall bear the loss or damages to such equipment and shall pay any expense incurred in the operation and maintenance thereof (unless otherwise provided in a written agreement entered under this part). The authority furnishing aid pursuant to this part shall compensate its employees during the time of the rendering of such aid and shall defray the actual travel and maintenance expenses of such employees while they are rendering such aid, including any amounts paid or due for compensation due to personal injury or death while such employees are engaged in rendering such aid (unless otherwise provided). Nothing herein shall prevent the Sheriff of Bay County from requesting supplemental appropriations from the governing authority having budgeting jurisdiction to reimburse the assisting authority for any action costs or expenses incurred by the authority performing hereunder.

SECTION IV: The Sheriff of Bay County and the authority will bear the liability arising from acts undertaken by their personnel pursuant to this Agreement. All of the privileges and immunities from liability, exemption from law, ordinances and rules and all pension, insurance, relief, disability, workers’ compensation, salary, death and other benefits which apply to the activity of such officers, agents or employees of any such agency when performing their respective functions within the territorial limits of their respective public agencies shall apply to them to the same degree, manner and extend while engaged in the performance of any of their functions and duties extraterritorial under the provisions of this Mutual Aid Agreement. The provisions of this section shall apply with equal effect to paid, volunteer and auxiliary employees.

SECTION V: The parties shall have professional liability insurance satisfactory to the other party and its insurer. Should the coverage of any party be canceled or undergo material change, that party shall notify all parties to this Agreement of such change within ten (10) days of their receipt of notice of such change.

SECTION VI: The resources or facilities that are assigned by the assisting authority shall be under the immediate command of a supervising officer designated by the Sheriff of Bay County.

SECTION VII: Whenever the employees of any law enforcement agency are rendering aid outside of their jurisdiction and pursuant to the authority contained in, or to any written agreement tendered under this part, such employee shall have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the political subdivision in which they are normally employed or appointed.

SECTION VIII: This Agreement shall be in effect for a period of 4 years commencing on August 31, 2012, ending August 30, 2016. Under no circumstances may this Agreement be renewed, amended or extended except in writing.

SECTION IX: Each signatory to this Agreement who is not a constitutional officer shall submit to the Sheriff of Bay County a resolution of the governing body of the signatory’s department authorizing his participation and signature to this Agreement, as accepting the terms hereof.
SECTION X: Either party may withdraw from this Agreement upon written notice to the other party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto cause these presents to be signed by their duly authorized officers on the mentioned date.

SHERIFF Frank McKeithen, Bay County Sheriff's Office

CHIEF Drew Whitman, Panama City Bch Police Dept.

MAYOR/ORMANAGER
COMBINED
OPERATIONAL ASSISTANCE AND VOLUNTARY COOPERATION
MUTUAL AID AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made as of February 4, 2013, by and between Washington County Sheriff's Office and the City of Panama City Beach, Florida.

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the subscribing law enforcement agencies are so located in relation to each other that it is to the advantage of each to receive and extend mutual aid in the form of law enforcement services and resources to adequately respond to:

(1) Continuing, multi-jurisdictional law enforcement problems, so as to protect the public peace and safety, and preserve the lives and property of the people and

(2) Intensive situations including but not limited to emergencies as defined under Section 252.34, F.S., and

   (1) Continuing, multi-jurisdictional law enforcement problems, so as to protect the public peace and safety, and preserve the lives and property of the people, and

   (2) Intensive situations including but not limited to emergencies as defined under Section 252.34, F.S.; and

WHEREAS, the City of Panama City Beach for its Police Department and the Washington County Sheriff's Office have the authority under Section 23.1225 F.S., et seq., to enter into a combined mutual aid agreement for law enforcement service which:

(1) Permits voluntary cooperation and assistance of a routine law enforcement nature across jurisdictional lines; and

(2) Provides for rendering of assistance in a law enforcement emergency as defined in Section 252.34:

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:
SECTION I. PROVISIONS FOR VOLUNTARY COOPERATION

Each of the aforesaid law enforcement agencies hereby approve and enter into this Agreement whereby each of the agencies may request and render law enforcement assistance to the other in dealing with any violations of Florida Statutes to include, but not necessarily be limited to, investigation of homicides, sex offenses, robberies, assaults, burglaries, larcenies, gambling and motor vehicle thefts, and primarily focusing on inter-agency task forces and/or joint investigations involving drug violations pursuant to Chapter 893, F.S., and backup services during patrol activities.

SECTION II. PROVISIONS FOR OPERATIONAL ASSISTANCE

The subscribed agencies hereby approve and enter into this Agreement whereby each of the agencies so represented may request and render law enforcement assistance to the other to include but not necessarily be limited to dealing with civil disturbances, large protest demonstrations, aircraft disasters, fires, natural or man-made disasters, sporting events, concerts, parades, escapes from detention facilities, and incidents requiring utilization of specialized units.

Whenever a traffic crash involving suspected injuries of a serious nature is reported to the jurisdiction in which the crash occurred, and that law enforcement agency is unable to provide the immediate response necessary to render aid to the injured or prevent further injury, the assisting agency may be contacted for assistance. The assisting effort shall be restricted to necessary first aid and traffic direction.

SECTION III. PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING ASSISTANCE

In the event that a party to this Agreement is in need of assistance as set forth above, that party shall notify the agency head or designee from whom such assistance is required. The agency head or designee whose assistance is sought shall evaluate the situation and will respond in a manner he or she deems appropriate.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to require either law enforcement agency to render assistance to the other. The decision to render assistance to the other law enforcement agency shall rest solely within the discretion of the agency to whom the request is made.

The agency head in whose jurisdiction assistance is being rendered may determine who is authorized to lend assistance in his or her jurisdiction, for how long such assistance is authorized and for what purpose such authority is granted. This authority may be granted either verbally or in writing as the particular situation dictates.
The agency head’s decision is final.

Should a sworn law enforcement officer be in the other subscribed agency’s jurisdiction for matter of a routine nature, such as traveling throughout the jurisdiction on routine business, attending a meeting or going to or from work, or transporting a prisoner, and a violation of Florida statutes occurs in the presence of said party, he or she shall be empowered to render law enforcement assistance and act in accordance with law. Should enforcement action be taken, said party shall notify the agency having normal jurisdiction and upon the latter’s arrival, turn the situation over to them and offer any assistance requested including, but not limited to, a follow-up written report documenting the event and the actions taken. This provision so prescribed in this paragraph is not intended to grant general authority to conduct investigations, serve warrants and/or subpoenas or to respond without request to emergencies already being addressed by the agency of normal jurisdiction, but is intended to address critical, life-threatening or public safety situations, prevent bodily, injury to citizens, or secure apprehension of criminals whom the law enforcement officer may encounter.

SECTION IV. COMMAND AND SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITY

The resources or facilities that are assigned by the assisting agency shall be under the immediate command of a supervising officer designated by the assisting agency head. Such supervising officer shall be under the direct supervision and command of the agency head or his designee of the agency requesting assistance.

Conflicts: Whenever an officer of either subscribing agency renders assistance pursuant to this Agreement, that officer shall abide by and be subject to the rules and regulations, personnel policies, general orders and standard operating procedures of his or her own employer. If any such rule, regulation, personnel policy, general order or standard operation procedure is contradicted, contravened or otherwise in conflict with a direct order of a superior officer of the requesting agency, then such rule, regulation, policy, general order or procedure shall control and shall supersede the direct order.

Handling Complaints: Whenever there is cause to believe that a complaint has arisen as a result of a cooperative effort as it may pertain to this Agreement, the agency head or his designee of the requesting agency shall be responsible for the documentation of said complaint to ascertain at a minimum:

1. The identity of the complainant.
2. An address where the complaining party can be contacted.
3. The specific allegation.
(4) The identity of the employee accused without regard as to agency affiliation.

If it is determined that the accused is an employee of the assisting agency, the above information will all pertinent documentation gathered during the receipt and processing of the complaint shall be forwarded without delay to the agency head or his/her designee of the assisting agency for administrative review. The requesting agency may conduct a review of the complaint to determine if any factual basis for the complaint exists and/or whether any of the employees of the requesting agency violated any of their agency’s policies or procedures.

SECTION V. LIABILITY

Each party engaging in any mutual cooperation and assistance pursuant to this Agreement, agrees to assume responsibility for the acts, omissions, or conduct of such party’s own employees while engaged in rendering such aid pursuant to this Agreement, subject to the provisions of Section 768.28 F.S., where applicable.

SECTION VI. POWERS, PRIVILEGES, IMMUNITIES AND COSTS

A. Employees of each participating agency when actually engaging in mutual cooperation and assistance outside of their normal jurisdictional limits but inside the state of Florida, under the terms of this Agreement, shall, pursuant to the provisions of Section 23.127(1), F.S., have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if the employee’s political subdivision in which normally employed.

B. Each party agrees to furnish necessary equipment, resources and facilities and to render services to the other party to the Agreement as set forth above. Provided however, that no party shall be required to deplete unreasonably its own equipment, resources, facilities, and services in furnishing such mutual aid.

C. A political subdivision that furnishes equipment pursuant to this part must bear the cost of loss or damage to that equipment and must pay and expense incurred in the operation and maintenance of that equipment.

D. The agency furnishing aid pursuant to this Section shall compensate its appointees and employees during the time such aid is rendered and shall defray the actual travel and maintenance expenses of its employees while they are rendering such aid, including any amounts paid or due for compensation due to personal injury or death while such employees are engaged in rendering such assistance.
E. The privileges and immunities from liability, exemption from laws, ordinances and rules, and all pension, insurance, relief, disability, worker’s compensation, salary, death or other benefits that apply to the activity of an employee of and agency when performing the employee’s duties within the territorial limits of the employee’s agency apply to the employee to the same degree, manner, and extent while engaged in the performance of the employee’s duties extraterritorially under the provisions of the mutual aid agreement. The provisions of this Section shall apply with equal effect to paid, volunteer, and reserve employees.

F. Nothing herein shall prevent the requesting agency from requesting supplemental appropriations from the governing authority having budgeting jurisdiction to reimburse the assisting agency for any actual costs or expenses incurred by the assisting agency performing hereunder.

G. Nothing herein is intended or is to be construed as any transfer or contracting away of any of the powers or functions of either party to the other.

SECTION VII. LIABILITY INSURANCE

Each party shall provide satisfactory proof of liability insurance by one or more of the means specified in section 768.28(15)(a) F.S., in an amount which is, in the judgment of the governing body of that party or that party, at least adequate to cover the risk to which that party may be exposed. Should the insurance coverage, however provided, of any party be canceled or undergo material change, that party shall notify the other party of such change within ten (10) days of receipt of notice or actual knowledge of such change.

SECTION VIII. FORFEITURE PROVISIONS

In the event an agency seized any real property, vessel, motor vehicle, aircraft, currency or other property pursuant to the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act during the performance of this Agreement, the agency requesting assistance in the case of requested operational assistance and the seizing agency in the case of voluntary cooperation shall be responsible for maintaining any forfeiture action pursuant to chapter 932 F.S. The agency pursuing the forfeiture action shall have the exclusive right to control and the responsibility to maintain the property in accordance with Chapter 932 F.S., to include, but not be limited to, the complete discretion to bring the action or dismiss the actions.

All proceeds from forfeited property seized as a result of or in accordance with this Agreement shall be divided equally between the parties, less the costs associated with the forfeiture actions.
SECTION IX. EFFECTIVE DATE AND AMENDMENTS

This Agreement shall take effect as of February 4, 2013, for a term of five (5) years, and thereafter shall be automatically renewed from year to year absent either party serving notice of cancellation as provided in Section X. This Agreement shall not be modified or amended except by written instrument executed with the same formalities as this Agreement.

SECTION X. CANCELLATION

Any party may cancel its participation in this Agreement upon delivery of ninety (90) days written notice to the other party. Cancellation will be at the direction of any subscribing party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto cause these presents to be signed on the date specified.
